Fred Martino wins New Mexico State University's Department of Public Health Sciences sixth annual Public Health Heroes Award

New Mexico State University's Department of Public Health Sciences presented its sixth annual Public Health Heroes Awards throughout October, honoring several Doña Ana County leaders and organizations for their public health commitments, collaborations and contributions.

KRWG Director of Content Fred Martino, Ph.D. received the Community Leader Public Health Hero Award, an honor that recognizes each recipient for providing distinguished services to the community and significant contributions as a leader in the development of healthier communities.

New Mexico State University associate professor Cindy Kratzke, right, presents a Public Health Heroes Award to KRWG's Fred Martino.

"We've covered a wide range of issues related to COVID-19. We've talked with researchers about the ways the virus spreads and how to protect yourself. We've heard from mental health experts about social isolation and family dynamics during the lockdown.

We regularly talk with doctors about how local hospitals and health care professionals are dealing with the challenges posed by the virus," said Martino.

Congratulations, Fred.

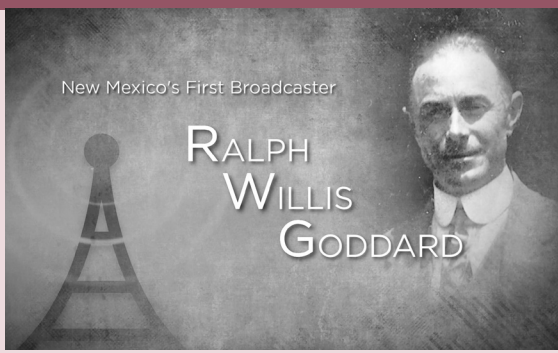
Ralph Willis Goddard: New Mexico's First Broadcaster



This half-hour documentary produced by KRWG Public Media tells the story of Ralph Willis Goddard and his pioneering work in New Mexico broadcasting. The program is produced in the spirit of celebrating New Mexico's 100 years of radio broadcasting. Stay tuned for more information coming this December!

Thursday at 7pm Dec. 10; Saturday at 5pm, Dec. 12; Sunday at 11am, Dec. 13

What brought you to Las Cruces?

I always thought this city was beautiful, clean and quiet and when I got married I knew this was the perfect place to raise a family. That is the reason I moved here.

Where did you go to college?

I went to Universidad Autonoma de Chihuahua (UACH) and earned a bachelor's degree in public accounting

Why are you passionate about Public Media?

Because of the service public media provides to the community. Besides getting people entertained, you can get people informed with good, solid, relevant information.

What are some of your favorite shows?

My daughters grew up watching Curious George, Arthur, and Clifford, those are great memories. I also really enjoy the news and all the cooking shows.

WORLD—NOVEMBER PROGRAMMING HIGHLIGHTS

CHANNEL 22.2

Doc World: No Country for the Poor

Sunday, November 8. In Hungary, the government has slashed social benefits and criminalized homelessness, but a group of activists, homeless and middle class, is confronting authorities to defend social justice and their right to be citizens. After the tragic death of two of its founding members, the group feels that Hungary is growing more hostile and their struggle is more important than ever. Despite all odds, their own community keeps them going—a mini-society with democracy and solidarity at its heart, an island of hope, belonging and dignity in a society gradually shifting the other way.

Stories from the Stage Marathon

Starting Saturday, November 28. After the holiday leftovers are gone, get your fill of Stories from the Stage, WORLD Channel's award-winning original series featuring ordinary people telling extraordinary stories. Curl up on the couch Thanksgiving weekend for a 24-hour binge-a-thon of compelling storytellers, some from around the world recording from the safety of their own homes. Don't miss the hourlong Can't-Miss Stories from the Stage pledge special and two all-new episodes: In Growing Up Black, hear about childhood experiences in a country too often divided by race, and in Pride, witness personal stories about the courage that's needed to be true to oneself.

JALAPENO CHEDDAR ROLLS
RECIPE COURTESY OF: MARTHA BAKES

Ingredients

- 9 tablespoons unsalted butter, room temperature, plus more for bowls, tins, and brushing
- 1 cup seeded, diced jalapeno chiles (about 4)
- 1 3/4 teaspoons coarse salt
- 1/4 cup warm water (110 degrees)
- 1 1/2 teaspoons active dry yeast
- 1 1/2 teaspoons plus 1 tablespoon sugar
- 3 1/4 to 3 1/2 cups bread flour, plus more for work surface
- 1 cup warm whole milk (110 degrees)
- 1 large egg, lightly beaten
- 2 cups finely grated extra-sharp cheddar cheese
- Flaky salt, for sprinkling (optional)

Directions

1. Melt 1 tablespoon butter in a medium skillet over medium heat. Add the jalapeno and 1/4 teaspoon coarse salt, and cook, stirring, until just tender, 4 to 5 minutes. Transfer to a plate to cool to room temperature.
2. Sprinkle yeast and 1 1/2 teaspoons sugar over warm water in a small bowl, and whisk to combine. Let stand until foamy, about 5 minutes.
3. In bowl of standing mixer fitted with a dough hook, whisk together 3 1/4 cups flour and remaining 1 tablespoon sugar and 1 1/2 teaspoons coarse salt. With mixer on low speed, add yeast mixture, warm milk, and egg. Increase speed to medium and mix until dough comes together, scraping down sides of bowl as necessary. If dough does not come together, add more flour, 1 tablespoon at a time and up to 1/4 cup.
4. Continue kneading dough on medium speed for 10 minutes. Knead in 4 tablespoons butter until incorporated and dough is smooth, 5 to 8 minutes. (Dough may come apart before coming back together.) Add cooled jalapeno, and knead until just combined.
5. Meanwhile, butter a large bowl. Turn dough onto a lightly floured work surface and shape into a ball. Transfer dough to the prepared bowl, turning dough to coat. Cover lightly with plastic wrap coated with cooking spray and let stand at room temperature until doubled in bulk, 45 to 60 minutes. Place dough, topside down, on a lightly floured work surface to deflate. Shape into a ball and return to same bowl, repeating the covering and rising process until again doubled in bulk, 45 to 60 minutes.
6. Meanwhile, butter two 6-cup jumbo muffin tins. Place dough, topside down, on a lightly floured work surface to deflate. Pat dough into a 7-inch square. Fold bottom edge two thirds of the way up, and fold again so that the top edge meets the bottom edge as you would a business letter. Cut the dough in half crosswise with a dough scraper.
7. On a lightly floured surface, roll out half of the dough to a 7-by-13-inch rectangle, arranging long side parallel to edge of work surface. Using an offset spatula, spread 2 tablespoons butter evenly on top. Sprinkle with half of the cheese and press to adhere.
8. Cut dough into 6 lengthwise strips. Stack three strips on top of each other, cheese side up, for two stacks. Cut stacks crosswise into thirds. Transfer each stack to prepared cups, cut edges up and shaping to fit.
9. Cover tins with plastic wrap coated with cooking spray. Let stand in a warm place until dough just reaches the edge of the muffin cups, and when gently pressed with a fingertip, an indentation should remain, 45 to 60 minutes.
10. Preheat oven to 425 degrees (or 400 degrees for a convection oven) with rack positioned in center. Remove plastic wrap and transfer tins to oven. Bake until golden brown and an instant-read thermometer registers 190 degrees when inserted in center of a roll, about 15 minutes; if browning too quickly, tent with foil.
11. Transfer to wire rack to cool slightly; turn out rolls. Brush tops with butter, sprinkle with flaky salt, if using, and let cool slightly more.

KRWG is honored to acknowledge the following Oro Vista Pioneers who have graciously donated $1,000 or more annually to KRWG FM and TV. If you would like information about contributing at this level please call Edmundo Resendez at 575-646-4918. If we inadvertently left your name off the list or if you would like information on how to become an Oro Vista Pioneer member, please call 575-646-4918.
